

2026 BUCKHORN CAMPS RETREAT SERIES

Art in the Wild

A three-night artist's dream. Step away from the noise and reconnect with your creative side in nature.

Meet Your Guides

Melissa Rioux and Penny Ricker are Maine-based artists from the Blue Hill Peninsula who share a deep connection to place, creativity, and the natural world. Together, they guide a welcoming and supportive experience centered around watercolor painting – inviting both new and experienced artists to slow down, observe, and create.

The Art in the Wild Experience ~ $1295

Spend your days painting both outdoors and indoors, inspired by the surrounding water, forest, and ever-changing light. This experience is designed to help you reconnect with your creative practice in a relaxed and supportive setting.

All essential materials are provided. Participants are also welcome to bring their own supplies if they prefer.

- Instructor-led watercolor painting sessions
- Free time to paddle, swim, hike, and relax
- Three nights lodging with all meals included
- Open to all levels – whether you are returning to painting or exploring for the first time
- Boat transportation to/from Jo-Mary Island

Spaces are limited. Call or email to secure your spot.
