

YOUTH BUSHCRAFT CAMP

LED BY NANOQ GUIDE SERVICES
HOSTED BY BUCKHORN CAMPS
JO-MARY ISLAND, MAINE

Real Skills. Real Confidence. Real Adventure.

Program overview

Give your child more than just a camp experience.

This is a hands-on wilderness immersion where campers learn real bushcraft skills in a small-group, highly guided environment.

With direct instruction, daily practice, and time in nature, campers build confidence, independence, and real-world outdoor capability—skills they'll carry for life.

August 2–8, 2026

Ages 10–17

Limited to 16 campers

Wilderness Core Skills

- Fire building & survival safety
- Shelter construction in the wild
- Navigation & situational awareness
- Knife handling & tool mastery
- Wilderness living skills

When

- Arrive Sunday, August 2
- Depart Saturday, August 8

Where

Buckhorn Camps
An established Maine sporting camp
(traditional lodge setting)
Jo-Mary Island, Maine

Cost

- $995 per camper
- Limited spots
 - 4:1 Instructor-to-camper supervision
 - Scholarships available

Limited to 16 campers to ensure quality instruction and individual attention

Call/text: (207) 723-1548

Email: Info@buckhorncamps.com

buckhorncamps.com | nanoqguides.com

